Theme: "Malaysia on the Cusp of Hyper-connectivity"

TIME	ITEM
0830	Registration and Breakfast
0900	Emcee's Address
0905 (25 m)	Welcoming Remarks: 20 Years On: Sustainable Governance and Promoting a Culture of Responsibility
	Abstract Welcoming address presents how MCMC has balanced interest of supply and demand since its inception through the application of regulatory principles in meeting the national policy objectives for Communications and Multimedia.
0930 (45 m)	Keynote 1: Where do we go from Here? Through the wormhole year 2030 – Should we maintain our current approaches? (45 mins)
	Abstract Session explores regulatory and collaborative approaches in addressing current issues and what needs to be put in place to achieve and innovate towards a future where the sum outcomes of ICT's beneficial socio-economic outcomes outweigh the risks of ICT.
1015 (30 m)	Break
1045 (45 m)	Keynote 2: Human Rights and Artificial Intelligence - – Implications for technology, policy and governance (45 mins)
	Abstract Keynote presentation on understanding the broad implications of AI on society and its implications on human rights and how to promote meaningful positive outcomes and simultaneously mitigate and address potential harm.
1130 (30 m)	Plenary Session 1: Cyber Security vs. Cyber Resilience – Knowing the difference and relevance in strengthening the Digital Ecosystem

TIME	ITEM
	Abstract Session presents working definitions of cyber security and cyber resilience and strategies for promotion and adoption incentivise enterprises to implement cohesive strategies incorporating security and resilience for adoption by SMEs. Session discusses research opportunities and parameters for consideration related to Communications and Multimedia
1200 (60 m)	Plenary Session 2: Pathways to Digital Resilience and Hyper-connectivity Moderator: Panel member 1: Panel member 2: Panel member 3:
	Abstract Encapsulation and consideration of issues, approaches and risk landscape of morning presentations and implication for technology, policy and governance. Discussion of priorities, focus, challenges and opportunities in developing research networks to strengthen evidence to practice in policy-relevant research literature, combining research from diverse disciplines together with research conducted by industry and regulatory bodies while being cognizant of different regulatory contexts cross-nationally; different findings may be obtained and culturally-specific conclusions may be required.
1300	Lunch

TIME	ITEM
1400 (90 mins)	TRACK 1 - THE HYPER-CONNECTED AGE (RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS, INDUSTRY, PRACTITIONER AND GOVERNMENT PRESENTATIONS) Session 1: How our online world is shaping the landscape of today's reality – A discussion of the hyper-connected human Panel member 1: * Panel member 2: * Panel member 3: * (*Sociologist / Anthropologist / Historian / Medical / Biological / Ecological / Linguistics / Literature)	TRACK 2 – LAW AND TECHNOLOGY (RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS, INDUSTRY, PRACTITIONER AND GOVERNMENT PRESENTATIONS) Session 1: Design and Accountability: Appraising Communications Technology through the Lens of Ethics, Society, and Values (Past, present and future) Panel member 1: * Panel member 2: * Panel member 3: * (*Sociology / Ethics / Journalism / Industry / Technology / Government)
	Abstract Session presents how hyper-connectivity shapes the individual and society and discusses areas of inquiry, methods of observation and measurement, and critical areas for development and address.	Abstract Session explores the basis of ICT design and accountability operating within a framework where agreed upon ethical principles tailored towards socio-cultural values and norms provide the basis for sustainable, equitable and enriching digital transformation.
1530	break
1545 (90 mins)	TRACK 1 - THE HYPER-CONNECTED AGE (RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS) Session 2: How our online world is shaping the landscape of today's reality – A consideration of the hyper-connected government organisations and businesses	TRACK 2 – LAW AND TECHNOLOGY (INDUSTRY, PRACTITIONER AND GOVERNMENT PRESENTATIONS) Session 2: Achieving Public Trust, Security, Participation and Regulation of the Internet. Cybersecurity: Appraising Communications Technology through the Lens of Regulation, Governance and Commerce (Past, present)

TIME	ITEM
	Panel member 1: * Panel member 2: * Panel member 3: * (*Government / Sociologist / Anthropologist / Business / Management / Economics)	Panel member 1: * Panel member 2: * Panel member 3: * (*Civil Society/Information Security / Enforcement / Technology / Government)
	Abstract Session presents the role of hyper-connectivity in bringing about digital transformation and how it continues to shape different types organisations as seen from different disciplinary perspectives.	Abstract Session outlines the balancing collective industry self-regulation, stand-alone corporate practices, and sectorial and cross-sectorial regulation and measures required to ensure the interests and protection of individuals, commerce and at-risks groups are protected and the capacity building and institutional steps needed to achieve this goal. The session also proposes regulatory principals based on a collaborative ecosystem of synergizing the various approaches and discusses how responsibilities are best shared and apportioned.
1715	Session Ends/Evening Tea